

Lycoming College Art Gallery

25 W. 4th Street

The Human Abstract, by Berta Golahny

Ongoing show open for Friday, March 2nd, 4pm-9pm. The art of Berta Golahny (1925-2005) spans the 1940s through the early twenty-first century, in the themes from the gritty city, war, space, the cosmos in its poetic evocation, and nature. These explorations are summed up in her extensive series The Landscape of Humanity, in prints and paintings, from the 1950s through 2000. The exhibition runs through March 24th.

Lycoming's Digital Media Gallery

Mass Communications Building, Franklin Avenue and Fourth Street

Small Works, by Sarah Jenkins

Thursday, March 1st at 4:30pm. Lycoming College is pleased to present "Small Works," a solo exhibition of stop motion animations and 2D mixed media. Jenkins' work, inspired by the duality of blue-collar labor, stems from her upbringing in a rural mining town in Appalachia. Her animation systems involve materials such as charcoal, coal slag, screws, t-pins, wood, cardboard and thread.

Genetti Hotel

200 W. 4th Street

ST'Art Student Show

Opening reception will be held Friday, March 2nd, 5-7pm. March's featured ST'Art artists are Emily Walter, Bailey Maggs and Maggie Dickinson-Sherry from the Williamsport Area High School.

Detwiler Planetarium

Lynn Science Center, Wash. Blvd/Mulberry St.

Jupiter's Four Largest Moons

Friday, March 2nd at 6:30pm & 7:15pm. Lycoming College invites the Williamsport community to enjoy free shows in its Detwiler Planetarium. The shows are free and open to the public. This month, the audience will take a glimpse into Jupiter's four largest moons. Attendees will explore the unique features of each of the so-called Galilean moons that make them potential candidates for life as we know it. Seating is first come, first seated.

WASD June Baskin Gallery

2780 W. 4th Street

K-12 Youth Art Month - Opening reception, Friday, March 2nd, 4-6pm. The Williamsport Area School District celebrates Youth Art Month with a K-12 display in the gallery. All district schools have 10 pieces on display, representing all of our young artists.

WILLIAMSPORT FIRST FRIDAY MARCH

Want to get listed on the First Friday flyer and have your event promoted via email & more? Send your event information to:

news@lycomingarts.org

Community Art's Center

220 W. 4th Street

Lycoming College's Wind Ensemble

Friday, March 2, at 7:30pm. Lycoming College's Wind Ensemble will return to Williamsport's CAC with an eclectic program of music. The concert will showcase two selections from Leonard Bernstein's "Candide," with special guests Saint Johns School of the Arts Dance Ensemble, Rebecca Ciabattari, a trombonist with the Williamsport Symphony Orchestra and Burning River Brass, will perform Rimsky Korsakov's Trombone Concerto.

Barrel 135

135 W. Third Street

Artist Jennifer Crum

Open for First Friday, March 2nd, beginning at 11am. For the month of March, Barrel 135 will be featuring Jennifer Crum. Her art can be viewed on her Facebook page. <https://www.facebook.com/JennECrum/?pnref=lhc>

Gallery425

425 Market Street

Keeping Local History Alive

Friday, March 2nd at 6pm. Local author, Thad Meckley, has been collaborating with social studies teacher, Wanita Antonacci and principal, Chad Greer, to keep local history alive at Loyalsock Middle School. Meckley spends time working with 135 6th grade students, asking them to look deeper into the history that surrounds the homes on Millionaires' Row.

Genetti Hotel

200 W. 4th Street

Annual Soup & Bowl Event

Friday, March 2nd. Please join us in the fight to end hunger! Your support is needed for the Central Pennsylvania Food Bank's annual Soup and a Bowl Event. This year's events will be held Friday, March 2, 2018, at the Genetti Hotel with three seating's starting at 11:00AM, 1:00PM, and 4:30PM. A simple meal of soup and bread, paired with a take-home pottery bowl, serve as a reminder of the historical food offerings at soup kitchens.

Peter Herdic House

407 W. 4th Street

Artist Emily Green

Friday, March 2nd at 5pm. Emily brings her paintings inspired by traditional quilt patterns to the Herdic lounge for the month of March—and helps us kick off Women's History Month with an aesthetic invocation of the arts of women young and old. Join us in the Herdic Lounge March 2nd for Emily's opening, or stop in anytime during the month to check out these fascinating pieces.

Robert M. Sides

201 Mulberry Street

Suzuki Violin Student Solo Recital

Saturday, March 3rd at 2pm. Join us for a Suzuki Violin Student Solo Recital in the auditorium at Robert M Sides Family Music Center in Williamsport. The event is free and open to the public.

Factory Works Gallery

1307 Park Avenue, Studio 9-210

Call and Response, by

Joanne Landis & Elody Gyekis

Opening Friday, March 2nd, 6 to 9 pm. A year ago Landis and Gyekis embarked on a collaborative artistic journey celebrating the strength of women through myth and magic, archetype and alchemy. Though their respective work is aesthetically very different, they both explore similar ideas. In each of their independent work they have both celebrated the power of women and their stories.